AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

- A. Name
- B. Purpose
- C. Composition of Committee, Constitution and Frequency of Meetings
- D. Responsibilities

A. Name

There will be an Audit Committee (“Audit Committee”) of the board of directors (the “Board”) of DATA Communications Management Corp. (the “Corporation”).

B. Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee, as delegated by the Board, is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by: (i) monitoring the quality and integrity of the Corporation’s corporate accounting and financial reporting processes and the financial information of the Corporation that will be publicly disclosed; (ii) monitoring the compliance by the Corporation with applicable legal and regulatory requirements insofar as they relate to financial reporting; (iii) reviewing areas of potential significant financial risk to the Corporation; (iv) evaluating the independence, qualifications and appointment and performance of the Corporation’s external auditors (the “External Auditors”); (v) monitoring the performance of the External Auditors; and (vi) reporting regularly, and making recommendations, on all such matters to the Board.

While the Audit Committee has the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Charter, the role of the Committee is that of oversight. In exercise of its oversight, it is not the duty or responsibility of the Audit Committee or its members to: (1) plan or conduct audits; or (2) determine that the financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, including international financial reporting standards (“GAAP”).

Management (“Management”) of the Corporation is responsible for: (1) the preparation, presentation and integrity of the Corporation’s financial statements; (2) maintaining appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles and policies and systems of risk assessment and internal controls and procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded and transactions are properly authorized, recorded and reported in accordance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations.

The Audit Committee and each of its members will be entitled to rely on: (a) the integrity of those persons and organizations within and outside of the Corporation from which it receives information; (b) the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Audit Committee by such persons or organizations absent actual knowledge to the contrary (which will be promptly reported to the Board); and (c) representations made by Management as to any audit, review or attest services and non-audit services provided by the External Auditors or any other public accounting firm engaged to perform other audit, review, or attest services.

C. Composition of Committee, Authority and Constitution and Frequency of Meetings

The Board will appoint the members of the Audit Committee. The Board will appoint one of the Members to act as the chair of the Committee (the “Chair”). The Audit Committee will consist of at least three members, one of whom is the Chair, all as determined by the Board, taking into account any recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee. Every member of the Audit Committee must be a director of the Corporation. The members of the Committee will be appointed to hold office until the next annual general meeting of shareholders of the Company or until their successors are appointed. The Board may remove a member of the Audit Committee at any time and may fill any vacancy occurring on the Committee. A member of the Audit Committee may resign at any time and a member of the Audit Committee will automatically cease to be a member upon ceasing to be a director of the Corporation.

New Audit Committee members will participate in such training and orientation as may be deemed by the Board or the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board to be necessary or appropriate in the circumstances.

The Audit Committee members will satisfy the independence and financial literacy requirements of applicable legislation, including National Instrument 52-110 - Audit Committees, and stock exchange rules, subject to any permitted phase-in periods afforded by such legislation or rules. A director who is not financially literate may be appointed to the committee, provided that such director becomes financially literate within a reasonable period of time following such appointment.

At least one member of the Audit Committee must have accounting or related financial expertise, which must involve: (1) an understanding of the accounting principles used by the Corporation to prepare its financial statements; (2) the ability to assess the general application of such accounting principles in connection with the accounting for estimates, accruals and reserves; (3) experience in the preparation, auditing, analyzing or evaluating financial statements that present a breadth and complexity of issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of issues that can reasonably be expected to be raised by the Corporation’s financial statements, or experience actively supervising one or more persons engaged in such activities; (4) experience with internal controls and procedures for financial reporting; and (5) an understanding of Audit Committee functions.

At an Audit Committee meeting, a quorum will be not less than a majority of its members. Each member of the Audit Committee will have one vote and decisions of the Audit Committee will be made by an affirmative vote of the majority. If the Chair is not present at any meeting of the Audit Committee, an acting chair for the meeting will be chosen by majority vote of the Audit Committee from among the members present. The Chair will not have a deciding or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes. In the case of a deadlock on any matter or vote, the Audit Committee will refer the matter to the Board. Powers of the Audit Committee may also be exercised by written resolutions signed by all members of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee will meet at least quarterly and more frequently as the Chair may determine. The Audit Committee may, in its discretion, invite Management and others to attend its meetings. The Audit Committee will meet separately with Management and the External Auditors periodically, as it deems necessary, but not less than annually.

In advance of every regular meeting of the Committee, the Chair, with the assistance of the Secretary, will prepare and distribute to the Members and others as deemed appropriate by the Chair, an agenda of matters to be addressed at the meeting together with appropriate briefing materials. The Committee may require officers and employees of the Company to produce such information and reports as the Committee may deem appropriate in order for it to fulfill its duties.

Audit Committee meetings may be held in person, by video conference or telephonically.

The Audit Committee should meet in camera without members of management in attendance for a portion of each meeting of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee will have the sole authority, without prior approval of the Board, to: (1) retain, at the Corporation's expense, and terminate independent legal, financial and other advisors, consultants and experts to assist the Audit Committee in fulfilling its duties and responsibilities; (2) set and pay the compensation for any advisors engaged by the Audit Committee; and (3) communicate directly with the External Auditors and any internal auditor of the Corporation.

The Chair will, on behalf of the Audit Committee, report to the Board on matters considered by the Audit Committee, its activities and compliance with this Charter.

At least once every two years the Audit Committee will perform a self-evaluation to: (1) determine the Audit Committee's effectiveness; (2) evaluate Audit Committee succession plans related to Audit Committee membership; and (3) review and assess the adequacy of this Charter and, if required, recommend changes to the Board.

D. Duties and Responsibilities

1. Duties and Responsibilities with Respect of the Appointment and Work of the External Auditors

- The External Auditors will both report to, and be ultimately accountable to, the Audit Committee and the Board as the representatives of the shareholders of the Corporation and be responsible for planning and carrying out the audit of the annual financial statements of the Corporation.
- The Audit Committee will recommend to the Board: (1) the External Auditors to be nominated for the purpose of preparing or issuing an auditor's report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Corporation; and (2) the compensation of the External Auditors.
- The Audit Committee will be directly responsible for the oversight of the work of the External Auditors, which will include the following:
 - (i) review of the mandate of the External Auditors;
 - (ii) review of the independence of the External Auditors, including the rotation of the partners assigned in accordance with applicable laws and professional standards, the internal quality control findings of the External Auditors' firm and peer reviews, and both the nature of and amount of non-audit fees;

- (iii) review of the performance of the External Auditors, including the relationship between the External Auditors and Management and the evaluation of the lead partner of the External Auditors, taking into account the opinions of Management;
 - (iv) removal of the External Auditors if circumstances warrant, after due inquiry and discussion with the External Auditor;
 - (v) review analyses prepared by Management or the External Auditors setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements;
 - (vi) resolution of any disagreements with Management regarding financial reporting; and
 - (vii) review of any audit problems or difficulties with Management's response.
- The Audit Committee will discuss with the External Auditors the critical accounting policies and practices and be advised of alternative accounting treatments of financial information and the treatment preferred by the External Auditors.
 - The Audit Committee will also receive all material written communications between the External Auditors and Management, including the Management letter and schedule of unadjusted differences.
 - The Audit Committee will discuss with the External Auditors and then approve the audit plan, scope, responsibilities, budget, staffing, the objectives, coordination, reliance upon Management, general audit approach, audit and related fees, the responsibilities of Management and the External Auditors, and timing.
 - The Audit Committee will pre-approve all audit, review or attest engagements and non-audit services which the External Auditors (or any other public accounting firm engaged to perform any such services) may perform for the Corporation or its subsidiaries, in each case including fees. The Audit Committee may delegate to one of its members the approval of such services. In such instances, the items approved will be reported to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting following such pre-approval.
 - The Audit Committee will review the practices related to the hiring of partners, employees or former partners and employees of the present and former External Auditors to ensure compliance with the rules of any applicable regulatory authority or stock exchange.

2. Financial Reporting and Compliance

- The Audit Committee will review and discuss with Management and the External Auditors where appropriate, the following financial documents and reports prior to public disclosure:
 - (i) annual audited financial statements, including the report of the External Auditors to shareholders of the Corporation, quarterly financial statements, and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations;

- (ii) all press releases discussing earning results or prospective earnings results, including pro forma or adjusted non-GAAP information;
 - (iii) all certifications that may be made by the Chief Executive of the Corporation and Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation on the annual or quarterly financial results, disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls over financial reporting;
 - (iv) any legal, tax or regulatory matters that may have a material impact on the Corporation's or its subsidiaries' operations and financial statements; and
 - (v) any financial information contained in any prospectus, information circular or other disclosure document or regulatory filing containing financial information of the Corporation or its subsidiaries.
- The Audit Committee will ensure that adequate procedures are in place for the review of the Corporation's public disclosure of financial information extracted or derived from the Corporation's financial statements and will periodically assess the adequacy of those procedures.
 - The Audit Committee will oversee any auditing or accounting reviews or similar procedures or investigations.
 - The Audit Committee will review, as appropriate, any report required by the appropriate regulatory authority to be included in the annual management information circular related to the matters covered by this Charter, including the disclosure of the External Auditors' services and fees, Audit Committee members and their qualifications and activities of the Audit Committee.
 - The Audit Committee will, if necessary, launch special investigations regarding any matter covered by this Charter.
 - The Audit Committee will, at all times, have full access to the books, records, facilities and personnel of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The Audit Committee may request that any officer or other employee of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or any advisor to the Corporation meet with members of the Audit Committee or its advisors, as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities.
 - The Audit Committee will review and approve any report to shareholders and others required by applicable laws or regulations or stock exchange requirements stating whether it has:
 - (i) reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with Management and the External Auditors, as appropriate;
 - (ii) received from the public accountants all reports and disclosures required under legal, listing and regulatory requirements and this Charter and have discussed such reports and disclosures with the External Auditors, including reports and disclosures with respect to the independence of the External Auditors; and

- (iii) based on the reviews and discussions referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) above, recommend to the Board that the audited financial statements be included in the annual report.

3. Financial Reporting Processes, Accounting Policies and Standards

- The Audit Committee will review with Management major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the selection or application of accounting principles and use of material estimates and judgement in preparing the financial statements. This will also include a review of analyses prepared by Management setting forth the impact of alternative GAAP methods and their impact on the financial statements.
- The Audit Committee will review all related party transactions entered into by the Corporation or its subsidiaries.
- The Audit Committee will also review the use of material special purpose entities and the business purpose and economic effect of material off balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations, guarantees and other relationships of the Corporation and its subsidiaries; the treatment for financial reporting purposes of any significant transactions which are not a normal part of operations, including any material off-balance sheet financing and legal (including unasserted claims), tax or regulatory matters that may have a material impact on the operations and financial statements including the use of any “pro forma” or “adjusted” information not in accordance with GAAP.

4. Internal Controls and Internal Audit

- Management is responsible for designing an effective system of internal controls. The Audit Committee will oversee the activities of Management in implementing policies and procedures that ensure the risks are identified and that controls are adequate, in place and functioning properly.
- The Audit Committee will review any major issues regarding the adequacy of the internal controls and the actions being taken in light of any material control deficiencies. This will include a review of internal control findings made by Management and the External Auditors. The Audit Committee will also discuss with the External Auditors the major accounting risk exposures and the steps Management has undertaken to control them.
- Management is responsible for reviewing, subject to Audit Committee oversight, the adequacy and effectiveness of the system of internal controls.
- The Audit Committee will participate in the appointment, promotion or dismissal of the Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation and/or Controller of the Corporation and help determine his or her qualifications, access and compensation.

5. Other

- The Audit Committee will have procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Corporation or its subsidiaries, including incidents of retaliation received by the Corporation, regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters and for the confidential, anonymous submission by directors, officers, employees, contractors and consultants of the Corporation or its subsidiaries of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, or other complaints or expressions of concern with respect to the Corporation's Code of Conduct, internal controls and legal and regulatory compliance.

- Management will report to the Audit Committee on a timely basis all discovered incidents of fraud within the Corporation or its subsidiaries, regardless of monetary value.
- The Audit Committee will at least annually provide oversight of the Corporation's and its subsidiaries' risk management policies, including environmental risks, disaster recovery and business continuity plans, investment policies and insurance coverage.
- The Corporation will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee, for: (i) payment of compensation to the External Auditors or any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Corporation; (ii) any other advisors engaged by the Audit Committee; and (iii) ordinary administrative expenses of the Audit Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties and responsibilities.
